

After session 1

The heroes

Crawl, Finn Walsh

- Something funky is happening in one of his garage experiments
- Jennifer Edwards, friend from childhood
 - Health saved by his biotech, “the girl in the tank”
 - Student at UTSA
 - Understandably becoming a bit radical
- Liam, his brother, in the Air Force
- His parents, usually out of town (he house-sits)
- Fellow bio-hackers – a questionable bunch, surely

The Oblate, Michael Solis

- Amanda Cabrera, Michael’s girlfriend, pragmatic, gainfully-employed professional
 - noticed something important
 - has registered herself and Michael as married so he gets health insurance

Supporting cast, institutions, villains (or something)

Cody’s Coffee, where Finn works

- Bob Fooden, manager, Finn’s boss

Myrmidon

- Noldo Viera, CEO, disturbing philanthropist zillionaire

Brooke Army Medical Center

- AmyBiota, power serum originator

The Lexicon Project

- Cheryl Macauley, prof at St. Mary’s School of Law, overseeing grad program of the Lexicon Project, Michael’s employer/mentor
 - Three upcoming students taught by Michael
- Father Manuel Ochoa, Oblate School of Theology, overseeing occultist side of the Lexicon Project, determined activist against immigration policy and ICE overstep, wants to get Michael into the Pastoral Ministry
 - Mind-scorched by Brimstone
 - OST chapel destroyed in the fight with Ghost
- Dean John Weylunde, wants the Lexicon Project to get into high-profile humanitarianism
 - Identified as the leak to XE by Father Ochoa

Xe, formerly Blackwater

- outsourced collusion with ICE vs. the Lexicon Project’s support of immigration rights
 - Ghost: Scorpion (Greg Perrin), Brimstone (Rod Ruiz), and Torment (Sandy Stafford)
