RANCINE, DEATH KNIGHT

[Sarah]

I was once a living Knight, but am now undead, a mindless warrior serving—owned by—House Starsong. I've never suffered a wound the necrotechs couldn't fix. I have been bent to their will for years, but something within me has started awakening and resisting. I want to remember myself. I abandoned my brother on orders from Issandi. I am definitely upset about it. I suspect I was a part of this necromantic experimentation. I plan to destroy it.

TRAITS

- Death Knight +1
- Undead +1
- Awakening +2
- Resisting +3
- Bent to the will of the Necrotechs

Tanser Krone,
Weapons-Master to House Ashpool
[Mike]

Tanser Krone died 23 years ago, but good luck convincing him of that. The cybernetic filaments threaded through his brain took over his cognitive functions as a Cyvarian neo-toxin dissolved his neurons. He insists he is not a construct, but House Ashpool's diviners are divided on the matter. He is willing to do anything for House Ashpool, possibly even sacrificing his own existence. However, new necromantic secrets may send him in a different direction.

- Master of sonics and blades +2
- Loyal and dedicated to House Ashpool +1
