of a believer

→ Philbus got the box → what's the connection?

she has the lead → what is it?
with the sea way

& Philbus himself of course!

nb: if I read correctly, the low church had the box at charter domain in its archive so we have factoring inside the low church

& the church understandably works its box back

① press straight forward
 - they paid a lot for it & the key is independent of the church so will pay "back"

OK, this is better - less a tangled web, more an expression of how things are

② nominally the sea monsters are part of sea church, but not really - the church wants it, actually wants it back as first principles, not really a bag. True as such
