

Proteus - Don't Forget

- review damage, still not sure if's hitting correctly
- Rhena did get a shiny thing from the Academy
- seems as if they are at least known now to someone important • iffy for Rhena as they have trouble keeping track of Rhats • and Siobhan has some backing from persons who prefer it that way
- people get spooked by firearms discharge, e.g. Polina's guards
- Uleah is relatively sated did cast Doppelganger successfully, did escape out of the confrontation
 - ^{where} where is his bolt-hole, who is ^{abetting} ~~supporting~~ his actions here?
 - has to come up w/a new plan, w/one endgame left to go
 - well aware that a Stygian has entered the mix
 - Siobhan did see him [but not his true face]; he might realize this [roll]; also check effectiveness for the spell
- Ramzi's whole new situation including relevant NPCs and context for Stygians here
