You are invited to add your own organized play sessions and discussion topics to the schedule. Tell me about it by e-post or Discord.

There is no admission fee, and no tickets or anything of the sort. The event is open for whoever arrives.

To help with services at the event, you may donate 300 kronor (or more) if you'd like.

- If the total reaches 10,000 kr, then the event can in fact happen – ACHIEVED
- If 20,000, beverages will be available on-site (soft, soft drinks, coffee) and each day will include fika
- If 30,000, I will organize helpers for all logistics like how to get around or deal with sudden difficulties, or to set the right plan for local activities like hiking or museum visits [a lot of international people are coming; they'll need this]
- If 40,000, I will provide the means for recording play and conversations when people want to, including cameras and people who know how to use them

Donating is not related to attending, and it doesn't confer any benefits or access at the event. It does purchase the current, playable version of my game in design, Amerika: Story Now in the Radical U.S.A.
